The sun rises to-morrow morning at 5:35 o'clock. The sun sets this evening at 6:36 o'clock.

COMMERCIAL.

TUESDAY, August 5th, 1884.

The amount of business transacted during the week has been moderate, and there is nothing noticeable to quote. At the local sales the usual amount of competition takes place, and the prices realized are equal to what they were in more prosperous times.

The arrivals for the week comprise the bk Hope from Port Townsend, bk Calbarien from San Francisco, P. M. S. S. Australia from the Colonies.

The departures include the bk D. C. Murray, P. M. S. S. Australia, bk Clan Grant and S. S. Alameda from San Francisco.

The Amer ship Republic called off the port on the 29th ult., en route to Melbourne from Tacoma, and proceeded on her voyage on the 30th.

The values of exports and imports will be found below.

By the S. S. Australia a bull and two stallions were imported from the Colonies, all of which are valuable additions to our stock and cattle market.

To-day will be offered the valuable business on Hotel street, known as the "Astor House."

The rice and sugar lands disposed of by auction last week show that the price of real estate is not weakening.

The S. S. Mariposa is due on Friday next.
